The consulting firm helps nonprofit organizations and foundations increase social impact by improving the sector’s perception and practice of human resource management. This grant enables six grantees to participate in AchieveMission’s signature Talent Initiative program, which provides human capital assessment, planning and development services to organizations seeking new leadership and workforce talent to guide their mission-driven expansion or internal culture change.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>AchieveMission</th>
<th>Oakland, Calif.</th>
<th>$600,000</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Alliance for Nonprofit Management</td>
<td>Chestnut Hill, Mass.</td>
<td>$60,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Asian Americans/Pacific Islanders in Philanthropy</td>
<td>San Francisco, Calif.</td>
<td>$10,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Association of Black Foundation Executives Inc.</td>
<td>New York, N.Y.</td>
<td>$49,000</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The national advocacy organization is dedicated to advancing philanthropy and Asian American/Pacific Islander communities. This three-year, $30,000 grant provides institutional membership support for three years.

The independent membership organization promotes effective, responsive philanthropy in African American communities. This three-year, $85,000 grant funds our institutional membership in the association for three years and supports the 2014 Joint Affinity Groups Unity Summit.

The independent membership organization promotes effective, responsive philanthropy in African American communities. Through this three-year, $150,000 grant, the association is creating a network of trained, connected, accessible black coaches and a Web-based center to strengthen the management and leadership skills of its members.

2013
New York, N.Y. $50,000

2012
Gran Haven, Mich. $450,000

COUNCIL ON FOUNDATIONS INC.

Arlington, Va. $55,000

The council provides its membership of private, community and family foundations and corporate giving programs with the opportunity, leadership and tools to expand, enhance and sustain their ability to advance the common good. A three-year, $145,000 grant renewal our annual membership dues for three years.

COUNCIL ON FOUNDATIONS INC.

New York, N.Y. $3,100,000

The organization provides loans and assistance for projects that integrate health with health services, in ways that improve people’s quality of life while lowering public costs. This three-year, $150,000 grant from our Human Services and Health programs supports development and scaling of programs that use new financial approaches to place more people in supportive housing, and improve comprehensive health and social services.

COUNCIL ON FOUNDATIONS INC.

New York, N.Y. $3,100,000

The membership organization of grantmakers in Michigan provides networking, education and advocacy opportunities. This two-year, $135,000 grant funds the Cities of the Founders’ License, a cabinet-level position in state government to help identify and broker strategic partnerships between the state and foundations that could lead to policy reforms that improve the lives of Michigan families and children.

COUNCIL ON FOUNDATIONS INC.

New York, N.Y. $3,100,000

The council provides its membership of private community and family foundations and corporate giving programs with the opportunity, leadership and tools to expand, enhance and sustain their ability to advance the common good. A three-year, $145,000 grant renewal our annual membership dues for three years.

COUNCIL ON FOUNDATIONS INC.

New York, N.Y. $3,100,000

The Dallas Arts District is home to the city’s leading visual and performing arts institutions and serves as the cornerstone and catalyst for creative vitality in the region. This grant enabled Dallas to host the New Cities Summit 2014, which focused on the development of more dynamic, sustainable, just and creative cities.

COUNCIL ON FOUNDATIONS INC.

New York, N.Y. $3,100,000

The national advocacy organization is dedicated to advancing philanthropy and Asian American/Pacific Islander communities. This three-year, $30,000 grant provides institutional membership support for three years.

COUNCIL ON FOUNDATIONS INC.

New York, N.Y. $3,100,000

The membership organization of grantmakers in Michigan provides networking, education and advocacy opportunities. This two-year, $135,000 grant funds the Cities of the Founders’ License, a cabinet-level position in state government to help identify and broker strategic partnerships between the state and foundations that could lead to policy reforms that improve the lives of Michigan families and children.

COUNCIL ON FOUNDATIONS INC.

New York, N.Y. $3,100,000

The council provides its membership of private, community and family foundations and corporate giving programs with the opportunity, leadership and tools to expand, enhance and sustain their ability to advance the common good. A three-year, $145,000 grant renewal our annual membership dues for three years.

COUNCIL ON FOUNDATIONS INC.

New York, N.Y. $3,100,000

The Dallas Arts District is home to the city’s leading visual and performing arts institutions and serves as the cornerstone and catalyst for creative vitality in the region. This grant enabled Dallas to host the New Cities Summit 2014, which focused on the development of more dynamic, sustainable, just and creative cities.
The visual arts center at Kenyon College provides exhibitions, classes and workshops. This three-year, $150,000 grant continues support for knowledge-sharing efforts and funds implementation of the center’s 10-year strategic plan to improve the information infrastructure connecting nonprofits and funders.

The coalition of 600 leading charities, foundations and corporate grantmakers is committed to advancing the common good and strengthening the nonprofit sector by promoting effective policies, championing public-private collaborations, fostering accountability and serving as a common meeting ground. A three-year, $75,000 grant renews our annual membership in the organization for three years.

The coalition of 600 leading charities, foundations and corporate grantmakers is committed to advancing the common good and strengthening the nonprofit sector by promoting effective policies, championing public-private collaborations, fostering accountability and serving as a common meeting ground. This two-year, $300,000 grant provides general operating support as well as funding for the C-Suite initiative for leadership development, including the 2014 C-Suite Detroit National convening and the C-Suite Track at the 2014 national conference in Seattle.

The organization identifies, develops and promotes education and workforce strategies that expand opportunities for youth and adults in more than 200 communities across 43 states. A cross-program grant is being used to conduct an in-depth examination of effective green infrastructure job programs in up to eight cities, including Detroit, to identify promising strategies for improving the entry and retention of underrepresented individuals in jobs within the economics sector.

The education and social policy research organization combines research and experience to improve the lives of low-income individuals and influence public policy and practice. This four-year, $1.5 million grant from our Education, Human Services and Detroit teams supports MDRC’s campaign to improve external communications, enhance its program-development process and support demonstration projects aimed at promoting community college access and moving families out of poverty.

The coalition of 600 leading charities, foundations and corporate grantmakers is committed to advancing the common good and strengthening the nonprofit sector by promoting effective policies, championing public-private collaborations, fostering accountability and serving as a common meeting ground. A three-year, $75,000 grant renews our annual membership in the organization for three years.

The national philanthropic affinity group for grants management professionals includes more than 2,400 members from more than 300 foundations, public charities and corporations. This four-year, $80,000 grant supports GMN’s efforts to streamline grant application and reporting, and provides three years of membership dues.

The group represents a diverse community of 500 grantmakers committed to building strong, effective nonprofit organizations, and works to promote strategies and practices that contribute to grantee success. This three-year, $45,000 grant renews our annual membership for three years.

The coalition of 600 leading charities, foundations and corporate grantmakers is committed to advancing the common good and strengthening the nonprofit sector by promoting effective policies, championing public-private collaborations, fostering accountability and serving as a common meeting ground. A three-year, $300,000 grant provides membership support.

The national philanthropic affinity organization promotes effective grantmaking that integrates research, policy and practice to bring about systemic change for children, youth and families. This three-year, $45,000 grant provides membership support.

The visual arts center at Kenyon College provides exhibitions, classes and workshops. This three-year, $150,000 grant continues support for knowledge-sharing efforts and funds implementation of the center’s 10-year strategic plan to improve the information infrastructure connecting nonprofits and funders.

The education and social policy research organization combines research and experience to improve the lives of low-income individuals and influence public policy and practice. This four-year, $1.5 million grant from our Education, Human Services and Detroit teams supports MDRC’s campaign to improve external communications, enhance its program-development process and support demonstration projects aimed at promoting community college access and moving families out of poverty.

The organization promotes green-building and environmental-sustainability standards and tools for the health care industry. It is using a cross-program, two-year, $600,000 grant to launch a Health Care Climate Council to mobilize new leadership on climate change within the U.S. health care sector and to implement innovative measures that improve the sector’s climate resilience.

The visual arts center at Kenyon College provides exhibitions, classes and workshops. This three-year, $150,000 grant continues support for knowledge-sharing efforts and funds implementation of the center’s 10-year strategic plan to improve the information infrastructure connecting nonprofits and funders.

The visual arts center at Kenyon College provides exhibitions, classes and workshops. This three-year, $150,000 grant continues support for knowledge-sharing efforts and funds implementation of the center’s 10-year strategic plan to improve the information infrastructure connecting nonprofits and funders.

The coalition of 600 leading charities, foundations and corporate grantmakers is committed to advancing the common good and strengthening the nonprofit sector by promoting effective policies, championing public-private collaborations, fostering accountability and serving as a common meeting ground. A three-year, $75,000 grant renews our annual membership in the organization for three years.

The coalition of 600 leading charities, foundations and corporate grantmakers is committed to advancing the common good and strengthening the nonprofit sector by promoting effective policies, championing public-private collaborations, fostering accountability and serving as a common meeting ground. A three-year, $300,000 grant provides membership support.

The national philanthropic affinity organization promotes effective grantmaking that integrates research, policy and practice to bring about systemic change for children, youth and families. This three-year, $45,000 grant provides membership support.

The national philanthropic affinity group for grants management professionals includes more than 2,400 members from more than 300 foundations, public charities and corporations. This four-year, $80,000 grant supports GMN’s efforts to streamline grant application and reporting, and provides three years of membership dues.

The group represents a diverse community of 500 grantmakers committed to building strong, effective nonprofit organizations, and works to promote strategies and practices that contribute to grantee success. This three-year, $45,000 grant renews our annual membership for three years.

Through its extensive database, GuideStar gathers and displays financial and organizational information on the nonprofit sector, which allows donors, funders, researchers and educators to make informed decisions. This three-year, $85,000 grant renews our annual institutional membership for three years.

Through its extensive database, GuideStar gathers and displays financial and organizational information on the nonprofit sector, which allows donors, funders, researchers and educators to make informed decisions. This three-year, $85,000 grant renews our annual institutional membership for three years.

The national philanthropic affinity organization promotes effective grantmaking that integrates research, policy and practice to bring about systemic change for children, youth and families. This three-year, $45,000 grant provides membership support.

The national philanthropic affinity group for grants management professionals includes more than 2,400 members from more than 300 foundations, public charities and corporations. This four-year, $80,000 grant supports GMN’s efforts to streamline grant application and reporting, and provides three years of membership dues.
The foundation works to build and support a global community of media creators, nonprofits and other partners to create media projects that inspire cities by creating media and events around the world. This grant supports the development and implementation of a strategic plan for Next City.

SMART GROWTH AMERICA

San Francisco, Calif. $627,750

The national organization researches, advocates and leads coalitions to bring smart-growth policies to communities nationwide. Through this two-year, $1.49 million grant, Smart Growth America’s Transportation for America advocacy program is working with regional planners and local advocates in developing and implementing model regional transportation plans, projects, programs and policies that improve health, equity, the environment and placemaking in Detroit and other targeted regions.

TECHNOLOGY AFFINITY GROUP

Wayne, Pa. $60,000

The membership organization for foundation technology professionals promotes the understanding of how information and communications technology can help its members further their philanthropic goals. A two-year, $107,500 grant is being used to develop, launch and promote Simplify, an information-sharing project to streamline grant application and reporting processes for the nonprofit sector.

TECHSOUP GLOBAL

San Francisco, Calif. $150,000

The technology resources organization helps non-U.S. charities obtain donations of technology products, information and services. A cross-program grant from our Education and Arts & Culture programs supports the Living Cully initiative, which engages low-income residents of Portland’s Cully neighborhood in developing and implementing strategies to increase their participation in public policy planning and poverty reduction. This grant supported the planning, programming and hosting, in Detroit, of Meeting of the Minds 2014, an annual conference focused on urban sustainability issues.

TIDES CENTER

San Francisco, Calif. $55,000

Tides is the fiscal agent of Emerging Practitioners in Philanthropy, an affinity group offering peer and intergenerational networking, professional and leadership development, and next-generation advocacy for foundation professionals under the age of 45. Tides’ three-year, $65,000 grant is for general operating support of Emerging Practitioners in Philanthropy.

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

Minneapolis, Minn. $100,000

The university’s Institute on Metropolitan Opportunity studies issues of poverty and race, as well as ways that laws, policies and practices affect development patterns in metropolitan regions around the United States. Funding supports research on the impacts of job development and commuting patterns on economic opportunities in large metropolitan areas.