

THE KRESGE FOUNDATION

Reader's Guide to the Form 990-PF

A private foundation must make its annual Form 990-PF available for public inspection. The Kresge Foundation (hereinafter, the "Foundation") posts this form for download on the Web site, www.kresge.org. The Form provides information about the Foundation's financial and charitable activities for the year as well as assesses any taxes owed by the Foundation to the IRS.

The tax return form and rules can be complex, so we hope that this Reader's Guide will aid you in gaining a better understanding of our form. We have provided answers to some frequently asked questions as well as a table of key data points and their relevance by topic related to the return.

Frequently Asked Questions

Payout

How much was Kresge required to distribute in 2023?

The Foundation was required to distribute $194,212,106 as shown on Page 8, Part X, line 7. The term the IRS uses for the minimum 5 percent payout is the distributable amount. The actual amount of adjusted qualifying distributions for the Foundation in 2023 was $215,348,887 as shown on Page 8, Part XI, line 4.

How is the required payout calculated?

The IRS rules require the Foundation to pay out 5 percent of its average non-charitable use assets, which is equivalent to the investment assets and any other assets that are not used directly in the charitable work of the Foundation, adjusted for income tax and recoveries of amounts previously treated as qualifying distributions. This calculation is summarized on Page 8 in Parts IX and X of the return.

What types of disbursements count toward Kresge's annual payout requirement?

Grants paid, program-related investments, exempt operating costs (those that further the charitable purpose of the Foundation), and amounts paid to acquire assets used directly in carrying out charitable purpose, all count toward payout.

Administrative and Other Costs

What were Kresge's 2023 exempt expenses as a percentage of qualifying distributions and as a percentage of average assets?

Total exempt expenses as a percentage of qualifying distributions was 15.10 percent (calculated as $32,511,315 Page 1, Part I, line 24, column (d) divided by $215,348,887 Page 8, Part XI, line 4). Survey results of peer foundations with greater than $1 billion in average assets reveal exempt expenses as a percentage of grant payout of 18.45 percent for 2023.

Frequently Asked Questions (Continued)

Total exempt expenses as a percentage of average assets was 0.83 percent (calculated as $32,511,315 Page 1, Part I, line 24, column (d) divided by $3,922,349,166 Page 8, Part IX, line 5). Survey results of peer foundations with greater than $1 billion in average assets reveal exempt expenses as a percentage of average assets of 1.09 percent for 2023.

Taxes and Other

What kind of taxes does Kresge pay?

The Foundation is exempt from income taxes under IRS rules. However, the Foundation is required to pay 1.39 percent excise tax on net investment income. Net investment income includes interest, dividends, net realized capital gains, and other investment income, minus expenses for managing investments. The net investment income figure used in this calculation is shown on Page 1, Part I, line 27b, column (b). The 2023 net investment income was $285,126,455. In 2023, a 1.39 percent excise tax rate resulted in tax of $3,963,258 as shown on Page 3, Part V, line 5 of the 990-PF.

The Foundation is also subject to unrelated business income tax under IRS rules due to the nature of income derived from some of the investment vehicles held in the investment portfolio. This tax is calculated using a flat 21% corporate tax rate.
